

1 Building a Context Free Grammar Thing

1.1 Example

A context free grammar consists of some special symbols: terminals, non-terminals, and a start symbol (which is a special kind of non-terminal). These are special kinds of strings, so let's make them subclasses of String. The start symbol is a special kind of NonTerminal, so let's make that a subclass too.